

“Climate needs change: maximizing the potential of gender studies”

Project Conference:

„Kompetenznetzwerk Chancengerechtigkeit im Klimawandel (GenderNETCLIM)“

- 9:30 - 9:45 Welcoming
Dr. Anush Köppert, Projektträger DLR
Prof. Dr. Ines Weller, University Bremen
- 9:45 - 10:00 Keynote I: Gender and international climate politics: strategies
Liane Schalatek – Associate Director of the Heinrich Böll Foundation North America (tbc)
- 10:00-10:45 Keynote II: Gender & Climate: Linkages
Gotelind Alber – Sustainable Energy and Climate Policy
- 10:45-11:45 Panel discussion: debating the core messages from GenderNETCLIM
Berthold Goeke – Head of Directorate at the Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation, Building and Nuclear Safety (BMUB)
Dr. Fritz Reusswig – Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research
Prof. Dr. Sybille Bauriedl – University of Bonn
Prof. Dr. Ines Weller – University of Bremen
- 11:45-12.15 Coffee break
- 12:15-13:15 Gender and climate: in-depth discussion in parallel working groups
1. Masculinities of Global Climate Change. Exploring examples of Industrial-, Ecomodern and Ecological masculinties
Dr. Martin Hultman – Linköping University, Sweden
  2. Strategies for the integration of gender
Arn Sauer – German Federal Environment Agency
  3. Climate friendly practices of everyday life
Dr. Immanuel Stieß – Institute for Social-Ecological Research
  4. Gender, Agriculture and Climate Change
Dr. Theresia Oedl-Wieser – Federal Institute for Less Favoured and Mountainous Areas, Austria
  5. Gender aspects in climate relevant product development
Prof. Ines Weller – University of Bremen

13:15-14:15 Lunch break

14:15-14:45 Highlights from the working groups

14:45-15:30 More women in research = gender-sensitive climate protection?
Moderated discussion between Dr. Anna Kaijser (University of Linköping, Sweden) and Prof. Dr. Martina Schraudner (Fraunhofer Headquarters and Technische Universität Berlin (TUB))

15:30- 16:00 Coffee break

16:00-16:45 Moderated discussion with participants: Implementing climate justice and gender equality. Benefits for politics, research and practice

16:45-17:00 Round up and next steps (Ulrike Röhr, GenderCC – Women for Climate Justice)

17:00 Networking and closing of the conference

Date: Tuesday, March 1st, 2016, 9:30 am to 5 pm

Venue: Berlin

*Moderator: Dr. Claudia Neusüß, compass Orange