

Save the Date!

KULTURSTIFTUNG
DES BUNDES

ABRAHAM
GEIGER
KOLLEG
בית המדרש
אברהם גייגר

„The Role of Women’s Leadership in Faith Communities. Marking 80 Years of Women in the Rabbinate”

International Conference in Potsdam & Berlin, Nov 17 – 19, 2015

This fall, the Abraham Geiger College and the School of Jewish Theology at the University of Potsdam will mark the 80th anniversary of Rabbi Regina Jonas’ ordination with an international conference, “The Role of Women’s Leadership in Faith Communities.”

More than 30 presenters from Europe, Israel and the United States will explore the impact of women in the rabbinate and the ministry, discuss issues of leadership and authority, women’s religious scholarship and gender (in)equality today. The conference will be open to the public. Online registration will start on August 20th. Sign up for an exciting conference!

For further information and program updates, see <http://abraham-geiger-kolleg.de/abraham-geiger-kolleg/ressourcen/women-in-the-rabbinate.html> or contact Mr. Hartmut Bomhoff at bomhoff@geiger-edu.de.

“I’m thrilled and honored to participate.”

Rabbi Denise L. Eger, President,
Central Conference of American Rabbis

Last summer, Abraham Geiger College hosted America’s four pioneering women rabbis - each the first to be ordained in her respective denomination - together with rabbis Jackie Tabick and Alina Treiger at a historic forum in Berlin to honor Rabbi Regina Jonas (1902–1944). ©Tobias Barniske

Regina Jonas © Archiv Stiftung Neue Synagoge Berlin - Centrum Judaicum